

REQUEST FOR PUBLICITY - September 1st

Mike Manuel, “KING” of Christian Country, from Nashville TN, will be singing at Salinas Valley Cowboy Church Tuesday night Sept. 4th in the rodeo room, 1034 N. Main St. at 7:00 P.M. Mike has won every award in every category in the CCMA from it’s very beginning. He is one of the Pioneers of Christian Country & is a 2007 Nominee for the Living Legend Award. He is also a 2007 Nominee for Male Vocalist, Songwriter, Christian Country Album & Song of the Year. He was the main attraction for this year’s Christian Country Music Concert here in Salinas at the Community Center in July. Mike has a new single out called “Back In The Country Again”. It talks about the songs that the DJ’s are playing now, with Craig Morton’s “That’s What I Love About Sunday”, Brooks & Dunn with “I Believe” & Carrie Underwood’s “Jesus Take The Wheel”. “Back In The Country Again” has already reached the number one spot 5 different times (come to Cowboy Church & he will explain). This song is also being played on mainstream country radio stations through out the country.
